MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Request to Talk to a Seminar
at Georgetown University

1. Dr. Penelope Thunberg, Adjunct Professor of Economics at Georgetown University and Director of Economic Research, Center for Strategic and International Studies has asked me to talk to her seminar on Applied Economic Theory on 12 February 1975. The students come from Georgetown's Graduate School and its School of Foreign Science.

2. I request permission to speak to this seminar on trends in population and food production. I will, of course, not discuss any classified information with this group. It is understood that I will be identified as an employee of CIA and that I am responsible for the recently declassified paper, OPR-401 (Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production, and Climate).
